Traffic Advisory

LANE CLOSURE ON SOUTHBOUND U.S. HIGHWAY 101 CUESTA GRADE

SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY – One lane of southbound US Highway 101 near the Cuesta Grade is closed today until 5 am tomorrow, Sept. 13 for median barrier roadwork, Caltrans officials have announced.

Message signs are posted to advise motorists, who can expect minor delays.

The contractor for this $1.5 million safety project is Calportland Construction of Santa Maria. Its completion is anticipated by early next year.

Caltrans reminds motorists to move over and slow down when driving through highway construction zones.

For traffic updates on other state highway projects in San Luis Obispo County, motorists can call Caltrans District 5 Public Affairs at 805-549-3318 or visit the District 5 website at: http://www.dot.ca.gov/dist05/road_information.htm.
